The Man in the Blue Suit.

At the San Pedro crossing yesterday an individual arrayed in a blue suit was discovered washing his grinders at the spring where the Indians alway sit their. He had picked up a tooth brush in the water, sat and immediately after struck for water to engage in this purifying process. He, no doubt, surprised the spectators as much as he did his teeth. He was the means of sending many a thirsty person away disgusted who came to drink.

Well 800 Feet Deep.

The International railroad company has succeeded in getting water at Encinal station, at a depth of 800 feet. The water does not flow to the top, but with use of force pumps expect to secure enough water to supply the engine taking water from that station.

Bishop Nera.

Bishop Johnston stated this morning to a LIGHT representative that it was quite likely Bishop Nera would arrive next Thursday, though his return might be delayed a day or two longer. The Bishop had taken passage on a French steamer, and as the weather at sea during the past week has been quite stormy and rough, he must have been delayed. He was hourly expecting a telegram from him announcing his arrival in New York. All classes will join in giving the old missionary and prelate a cordial welcome on his return.

BEN MILAM'S TOMB.

Who Placed the Stone Over His Almost Forgotten Grave—Honor to whom Bones are Due.

The Express is in error in its article this morning touching upon that attempted robbery of the grave stone which covers the remains of Ben Milam, the Bear hero. General John R. Baylor had nothing to do with the placing of any stone or slab to his memory or to consecrate his last resting place. The facts in this matter are of public history and should not be garbled by newspaper inaccuracy. They are these: Colonel V. O. King, when Commissioner of Insurance, Statistics and History, some time in 1879, finding that the Legislature was deaf to his appeals to mark, by some appropriate tablet or monument, the hero's last resting place, generously and patriotically took it upon himself to see that the illustrious dead was not forgotten, and paid the expense out of his own pocket, with the exception of the stone which was taken from the San Giacomo quarry by Mr. Robert Eager, who, in doing so, said: "I will see that Ben Milam has his name carved above his end." The burial place of Ben Milam had at this time been forgotten. It was only that he was buried exactly in the middle of the old Campo Santo. The stones were fortunately known to the surveyor employed, and Hon. J. H. McLevy, of this city, acting under the instructions of Colonel V. O. King, caused the survey to be made and as Milam was literally buried by the compasses in the center of the lot his last resting place was located. Colonel King likewise procured permission of the Mayor of the city to excavate if he saw proper. All the expenses of survey and placing the stone in position, except those above mentioned, were paid by him individually. It was a labor of love with him, of State and of local pride to have these honored ashes as near, and "honor to whom honor is due" should be recognized as appropriate in this instance.

FINED OR CONFINED.

Business at the Recorder's Court This Morning.

The matinial reception of to-day at the Recorder's court was of an average in the number of attendants. Frankup Alec Williams, charged with being drunk and disorderly, while under the influence of a "main," while he had chased a man by the singular name of Smith through the machine shop at the Samet depot, threatening to take his life. Jailed for want of $10. On the same allegation Juan Reer, in heat of a $5 fine, proceeded to bring his body into the "cooler." Jacob Jacob, as a "vag," in default of $10, will be released from prison just about the very moment that this year's autumn goes out of fashion. The same can be said of Richard Drexler. Mr. Lopez, for using "caud" words toward John X. Smith, his mark, fined $5. Tom Davis was arrested on complaint of his wife. Like a good family man he didn't wish to go away from home to indulge in sport, so he was about setting up a shooting gallery near the family altar, with his wife for a target, when he was arrested. He went to limbis in fear of paying the fine and then endeavored to have his son placed in the same abode on some flimsy charge. The case against Mike Devine, as a vagrant, was dismissed. Chris Wiskler, for violating the back ordinance dropped $2.50 into the city's exchequer, and George Angrave closed all proceedings before this tribunal by being mulcted in the sum of $2, as disorderly.

DEMENTED.

The Husband a Suicide, the Wife Becomes an Insane Wanderer Seeking Death.

Mrs. Getz, who appeared at the City Clerk's office seeking aid, as reported in yesterday's issue of the LIGHT, called upon Judge Mason and was sent by him to the poor house. The poor woman is demented, so much so that she cannot tell from what place she has. She still maintains that her husband is living in Lavaca county, and has deprived her of her children, turning her out penniless. She is supposed to be the wife of the man who committed suicide here at the Beales hotel a few months ago. This has so preyed upon her mind as to upset her reason. She is lady-like in appearance, and from some Germans who have taken an interest in her, it appears that she is from a tiled family in the Fatherland and will not cease to be sent to the insane asylum till she has died from the County Judge of that county. If she has resided there she will be returned to the country to which she belongs. How true it is that when "sorrows come they come not single spies but in battalions."

TEXAS NOTES.

Item Upset From the State Press and Commerce Thorow.

HILL—This town has been desolated by a fire, but the plucky citizens talk of rebuilding at once. That is the right style.

MERIL—Miss Maggie Cox aged 17, disappeared suddenly on Sunday night, and her friends are distressed and perplexed. It is thought she has been enticed off by some man, and is not visiting Mary Churchill.

HENDERSON—A telegram to the Houston Post of November 27, says of Hempstead

"During daylight in our little city everything is quiet and peaceful, but let dark come and it is dangerous almost for any one to pass upon the streets. Pistols are fired in all directions. James Clarke was shot in the finger last Saturday night by an unknown party while walking along the streets. The officers say they can't catch them." This is a bad state of things and ought to be stopped.

MONROVIA COURIER.—The Athens Narrow Gauge says the county has but just paid $14,000 for a jail, and the iron now in it wants repairs, and oppose any further depletion of the county funds for jail repairs.... It estimates the revenue of its county at $3000.... Twenty immigrants from North Carolina arrived at Athens the other day, and will locate in Flat Creek.... Athens has received a fair share of custom.... The railroad is so crowded with business that freight is a long time coming, and the want of brick and lime has "slowed up" building.... Speaking of Senator Maze, the Narrow Gauge says the eccentric Senator Bull is no short stock to represent such a State as Texas in the highest legislative body in the world.... The name of Narrow Gauge for a newspaper is suggestive of illiteracy and narrow view, though Shakespeare says "there is nothing in a name.... The point is good."

PORT BELL COUNTY.—The Richmond Nation is a "patent outsider," and all the patent outsiders mostly contain the same articles, so that one meets the same article very often.... Local news—news from the county—is the greatest merit in a country paper, but you cannot drive this idea into the heads of some country editors with a maul. So, they will spread themselves, regardless of expense, on the eddystone political problems.... Richmond was visited with a splendid rain a few days ago, which enlivened things considerably.... A delegation from Richmond went to Galveston to see Tom Ochiltree, but it has not transpired what the object of their mission was but whatever it was, they accomplished it.... Colonel Ellis, of Sugarland mills, is making 33,000 pounds of sugar per day, and will soon have a paper mill attached to the same machinery. In operation, as the bugles or cracked bats, have been found to make excellent paper bags and brown paper.... Mrs. Winston is quite sick.... Craps around Hellinors are good, averaging from a hole to a hole and a half in the acre, $1000 a hole.

Colonel Johnson made 100 boxes of eight acres.... The Nation winds up in this inglorious strain: "The editor is sick, the publisher has left us, and our printer has to be editor, devil and plater." We tender him our sympathy and condolence for his sickness, but rejoice that the "devil has left him." We now look to hear of his joining the "Salvation Army."

MONTEITH MERIDIAN TIME.

At 6 o'clock yesterday the Sunset mail began the use of the pink meridian time. All officers and employees will move their clocks and watches nine minutes ahead of the Jefferson City time and regulate them by the time wired to them every noon. It will be of importance to our citizens to observe that the new time is 30 minutes faster than city time.

New Directors.

The San Antonio club met last evening and elected the following directors for the ensuing year: Judge T. J. Devine, Major E. D. L. Wickes, Captain C. C. Cresson, Major H. B. Andrews, Colonel A. Belknap, H. L. Berg, D. E. Blanchard, J. B. Lacoste, Major J. H. French, Major J. F. Mintz, H. Oppenheimer, L. D. Dibble, Esq., and Colonel John Winkler.

OPHELIA DURR KILLED at Eagle Pass.

Special Telegram to the San Antonio Light.

EAGLE PASS, TEXAS, December 1, 1 p.m.—Ophelia Durr, a girl 16 years of age, was killed yesterday on Dur's ranch, 30 miles east of Eagle Pass, by the discharge of a rifle in the hands of a boy named Travis Collins, 12 years of age, and a stepson of the deceased's sister. The shooting is said to be accidental. An inquest was held last night by Judge Dell.

The Great Comedy Show!

The present is a Day of Comedy! Humor permeates American society so freely that it has become a part of our nature. The press, the rostrum, the theater, and even the pulpit have caught the infection, and fun enters into our daily life to lighten our labors and drown our cares.

The comedy of Our Strategists, by Dr. T. H. Sayre, of New York, is claimed to have been written just for fun. It is called a farce comedy, because that term more clearly expresses its character, but it is vastly different from the class of plays recently introduced by that title.

It is peculiar in its originality, full of unexpected situations, numerous surprises, and bright ideas that leave a lasting impression upon the auditor long after other memories are passed away.

The plot is perhaps the most ingenious piece of dramatic construction ever placed before the public, beginning with a simple little domestic story of "two souls with but a single thought," it becomes a terrible tangle, apparently beyond readjustment, but the unraveling of the long string of deviousness, mistakes and mishaps is watched with humorous interest, and the hearty and incessant peals of laughter which convulse the audience, are the best proof of its unequalled success. This brilliant comedy will appear Sunday night at Turner Opera Hall. 11-30 p.m.
